

Facts & Figures 2026: How Does Your State Compare?

April 1, 2026 • 2 min read

By: Nicole Fox

Update: A previous edition of this report contained errors in Table 4; they have been corrected. Additionally, Table 9 has been updated to capture new data from our report, Summary of the Latest Federal Income Tax Data, Tax Year 2023, which was published on April 15, 2026. Tables 11 and 14 have been updated to capture laws enacted in late March and April 2026 that are retroactively effective for tax year 2026.

How do taxes in your state compare regionally and nationally? Facts and Figures, a resource we've provided to US taxpayers and legislators since 1941, serves as a one-stop state tax data resource that compares all 50 states on over 40 measures of tax rates, collections, burdens, and more.

For visualizations and further analysis of 2026 state tax data, explore our popular state tax maps and the latest edition of our State Tax Competitiveness Index. You can also subscribe to our weekly newsletter to stay informed on the latest tax updates. Download and explore the latest 2026 state tax data with our interactive tool below.